Summary

SteelFit USA, a supplements brand, faced challenges scaling its e-commerce operations on the Google Platform and maximizing return on ad spend (ROAS). By leveraging a strategic mix of Google Display, Video, and Shopping campaigns, I helped SteelFit achieve over 100% ROAS growth and over 250% revenue growth in under a year, while significantly increasing cross-device conversions and assisted conversions. The campaign brought measurable and consistent performance improvements, turning challenges into a success story.
